

I am absolutely opposed to the airways being in the hands of just a few people. This constitutes a monopoly on free speech and flies in the face of our first amendment rights. The airways should be open to as many local and diverse groups as possible thus allowing the public to choose what and to whom they wish to listen.